

Lakeside-Milam Recovery Centers Adds New Staff Member and Additional Services

On January 7, 2019, Lakeside-Milam Recovery Centers announced that Ross Finke, LCSW, has accepted the position of Clinical Director. Ross will be responsible for the oversight of their treatment philosophy throughout the continuum of care. He will also lead the development and execution of additional mental health services for their patients and family members. Ross is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker who has been part of the Lakeside family for over 30 years; the last several with a focus on intervention, family education, and patient care.

As Lakeside-Milam develops additional outpatient services to help meet the needs of patients in early recovery, Ross can call on his years of private practice success and the unsurpassed understanding of Lakeside's treatment philosophy. His experience will enable Lakeside-Milam to identify what they can effectively provide and enhance their relationships in the community.

Lakeside-Milam Recovery Centers is dedicated to continuing development and strengthening of their services to increase their effectiveness in putting families back together again.
